LAMDA Acting Diploma

I trained at Arts Educational Schools in Tring and in London as a student for 5 years. I worked for several years in the profession as a musical theatre performer and an actress. In 1995 I was awarded my Lamda teachers diploma with distinction.

Westminster School of Performing Arts (1990 - Present)

Since the conception of the school in 1990, opening with 20 students, I have built the acting department to a thriving 90 students. The class age ranges from 5 years upwards (16+) and includes:

- Voice classes • Play productions
- Lamda examinations (Acting • Public speaking • Verse and prose)
- Singing and musical theatre workshops • Produces annual productions

Performers College (1995 - 2012)

I was invited to join Performers College to start and build the acting dept. I developed the voice department and was involved in the devising and producing of in-house performances. I have been instrumental in evolving the technical strength and artistic direction of the students in voice and acting to perform with clarity, projection, truthfulness and commitment.

- Voice Coach • Acting Teacher • Audition Technique

Debra Day Theatre School (1995 -1999)

- Voice classes • Play productions
- Lamda examinations (Acting • Public speaking • Verse and prose)
- Singing and musical theatre workshops

Goffs Oak Primary School (1992 - 1994) Ray Lodge School (1992-1994)
